

Commenting on proceeding: "02-278".

--That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my existence by supporting my right to have a communication device, a service which I PAY FOR, that I may use as I please and as I choose.